

WORLD HERITAGE IN SPAIN

Spain has 55 appointments UNESCO World Heritage, which makes us the second country in the world with the greatest number of properties. Each of these is a true reflection of the variety and cultural riches of our country: monumental buildings, old part of towns coexist with landscapes, natural areas, routes and ethnological traditions.

Old part of Cordoba's Town (1984, 1994) Alhambra, Generalife y Albaicín, Granada (1984) Cathedral of Burgos (1984) Monastery El Escorial, Madrid (1984) Architectural Works by Antonio Gaudí (1984, 2005) Coves of Altamira y Paleolithic Works of art in the north of Spain (1985, 2008) Old part of Segovia's Town and the roman aqueduct (1985) National Monuments in Asturias (1985, 1998) Old part of Santiago de Compostela's Town (1985). Old part of Avila's town (1985,2007) Pieces of Mudejar Architecture in Aragon (1986, 2001) Old part of Toledo's City (1986) National Park of Garajonay (1986) Old part of Caceres town (1986) Cathedral, Alcázar and Archive of Indias in Sevilla (1987) Old part of Sevilla's Town (1988) Monastery of Poblet (1991) Archaeological team of Mérida (1993) Monastery of Saint Mary in Guadalupe(1993) Way of St. Jaques (1993) National Park of Doñana (1994,2001) Historic city of Cuenca (1996)	Silk Market in Valencia (1996) Las "Méridas" (1997) Palace of Music in Catalonia and Hospital of Sant Pau, Barcelona (1997) Monasteries of "San Millán de Yuso y de Suso" (1997) Pirineos "Monte Perdido" (1997, 1999) Cave Art of Mediterranean Arc of the Iberian Peninsula (1998) University and old part of Alcalá de Henares town (1998). Ibiza, biodiversity and culture (1999) "San Cristóbal de La Laguna" (1999) Archaeological team of Tarraco (2000) Romanesque Church of Catalonia in "Valle del Boí "(2000) The roman wall of Lugo (2000) The Palm Forest of Elche (2000) Urban Landscape of Aranjuez (2001) Urban Landscape of Úbeda and Baeza (2003) Hanging Bridge of Vizcaya (2006) National Park of Teide (2007) Tower of Hércules (2009) Cave Art of " Valle del Côa "(Portugal) and "Siega verde "(Spain) (2012) Natural Landscape of "La serra de Tramuntana", Mallorca (2011). Mercury Heritage in "Almadén and Idria"(Spain and Slovenia) (2012)
---	---